

Legislative Advocacy Seminar

November 12
Live-Streaming/Virtual

Brock Brummett

10:00 - 11:00 am: (1.0 CLE Hour)
The 2020 Election—Is It Over Yet?

Roby Brock and John Brummett will discuss the election results of the much anticipated 2020 election. Roby and John will take a deep dive into the federal, state and local races of the 2020 election.

Miller

12:00 - 1:00 pm: (1.0 CLE Hour)
Conflicted: The Perils of Amending an Arkansas Code Section Multiple Times in a Legislative Session

Matthew Miller with the Bureau of Legislative Research will discuss the perils of amending an Arkansas code section multiple times in a legislative session. Matthew will address what happens when two acts amend the same statute in conflicting ways.

Shepherd

2:00 - 3:00 pm: (1.0 CLE Hour)
2021 Legislative Preview

John Vines will moderate a legislative panel featuring Speaker of the House Matthew Shepherd. Speaker Shepherd will be joined by a couple of his colleagues in the House and Senate to provide a preview of what to expect during the upcoming 2021 legislative session.

Register for one, two or three hours.

Co-sponsored by:

Prices and Registration:

Non-Attorney - $35 per hour or $99 for all 3
ArkBar Members - $49 per hour or $125 for all 3
Non-members - $69 per hour

Call or email Cynthia Barnes at 501-801-5660 or cbarnes@arkbar.com to register.